

I don't listen to the local radio stations much since XM. I would like to be able to get local weather and traffic on the XM broadcast and feel it is protectionist and a violation of my rights to be forced into listening to local radio broadcast for the info that I could get from XM. It should be my decision to choose my media outlet not the governments.

Respectfully,

Jack Lewis